

Project Management

Overall responsibility to initiate, plan, execute, monitor, and control the successful implementation of protection and restoration projects from the beginning of design phase through the completion of the construction phase.

